

Mother's Day.

Next Sunday is the day set apart for remembering and honoring mother. Whether your mother is dead or yet living, it will be most becoming to observe this day in loving memory and honor to her. All, regardless of age, class or race, can join in the observance of "Mother's Day."

We give below some quotations which may be used in remembrance of our mothers:

"Nature's loving proxy, the watchful mother."

"All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my mother."

"I think it must somewhere be written, that the virtues of mothers shall be visited on their children, as well as the sins of the fathers."

"When Eve was brought unto Adam he became filled with the Holy Spirit, and gave her the most sanctified, the most glorious of appellations. He called her Eve, that is to say, the mother of all. He did not style her wife, but simply mother,—mother of all living creatures. In this consists the glory and the most precious ornament of woman."

"The dignity, the grandeur, the tenderness, the overlying and divine significance of motherhood."

"Say to mothers, what a holy charge is theirs; with what a kingly power their love might rule the fountains of the new-born."

"I would desire for a friend the son who never resisted the tears of the mother."

"A man never sees all that his mother has been to him till it's too late to let her know that he sees it."

"A father may turn his back on his child; brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies; husbands may desert their wives, and wives their husbands. But a mother's love endures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation, a mother still loves on, and still hopes that her child may turn from his evil ways and repent; still she remembers the infant smiles that once filled her bosom with rapture, the merry laugh, the joyful shout of his childhood, the opening promise of his youth; and she can never be brought to think him all unworthy."

"Stories first heard on mother's knee are never wholly forgotten—a little spring that never quite dries up in our journey through scorning years."

"A mother's love is indeed the golden link that binds youth to age; and he is still but a child however time has furrowed his cheek, or silvered his brow, who can yet recall, with a softened heart, the fond devotion or the gentle chiding, of the best friend that God ever gives us."

"The mother in her office holds the key of soul; and she it is who stamps the coin of character, and makes the being who would be a savage but for her gentle care, a Christian man! Then crown her queen of the world."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

"Even he that died for us upon the cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if our last worldly thought—the last point of earth from the soul should take its flight for heaven."

Convicts The Deceivers.

One of the many able and earnest men of the state who took the lead in support of the Constitutional amendment was Editor Yerby of the Greensboro Watchman. In a recent issue of his paper editor Yerby, in the following lucid manner, takes occasion to show up the insincerity of those who sought to and did mislead the people as to the real issue involved in that campaign.

"In the fall of 1908 we had the honor and the privilege of making a canvass and delivering a number of speeches in favor of the proposed amendment to the constitution of Alabama seeking to forever prohibit legalizing the sale of whiskey in this state. The greatest obstacle we met with in the canvass was the 'poison' the anti-amendmentists had scattered in regard to the fearful provisions of the Carmichael and the 'Fuller-liquor' bills that had been enacted by the 'Comer legislature.' Many and awful were the things that were going to happen to the people of Alabama if the amendment was carried and these bills allowed to remain on the books. 'The sanctity of the home' would be invaded and the poor people would be at the mercy of unscrupulous enemies who would 'throw a liquor bottle under the house' and thereby cause the arrest and imprisonment of the occupants of the home. Not only that, but if an officer found a bottle of whiskey in the house of a man he would be haled before the courts and made to suffer. No one who did not enter actively into that memorable campaign can conceive of the misrepresentations and low appeals that were made to the people. Attacks on the Fuller bills were the principal stock-in-trade of the anti-amendment speakers, and really caused the defeat of the amendment, because the speakers did, beyond doubt, frighten a large number of voters into believing that what they told them were facts."

"But at this date—two and a half years after—what do we see? An O'Neal legislature has come and gone. Admittedly it was for whiskey, and did all it dared to do to bring liquor back into Alabama. But this same crowd, that fought the amendment so hard, and pictured the direful things that were contained in Carmichael and Fuller bills, met and adjourned and left those two 'iniquitous' laws—so full of dangers that threatened the sanctity of the homes and liberties of the people (?)—in all their integrity upon the statute books of Alabama. The remain there to-day in as full force and effect as in the fall of 1908 when they were declared by the anti-amendmentists to be such a menace to the very freedom of the people. Why did they not repeal them? Does not this action prove the correctness of the statements of the amendmenters, when they declared to the people that they were being deceived for a purpose?"

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again. The eternal years of God are hers; But error, wounded, writhes in pain, And dies amidst her worshippers."

—Opelika Daily News.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

"The Peanut As A Hog Feed."

The value of the peanut as a hog feed has been frequently mentioned in this paper during recent years, but too much can not be said of its virtues for this purpose.

With peanuts gathered by the hog and a little corn—say one-quarter of a ration—cheap pork can be made, perhaps cheaper than with any other feed. The pork is apt to be soft, but this can be corrected by a short feeding period on corn, or what is better by feeding three weeks on a ration consisting of one part of cottonseed meal to three parts of corn.

—Starkville (Miss) Progressive Farmer.

CHARLES G. GATES.

Son of Millionaire Steel Man
Whose Wife Seeks a Divorce.

"HAREM SKIRT" BILL.

Representative Tidwell Says His Measure Is No "Freak" One.

A Tallahassee, Fla., dispatch says: Representative J. H. Tidwell recently introduced in the Florida legislature a bill prohibiting the wearing of the streets, or in public places, of harem or harem skirts. It was referred to the committee on Indian affairs, which reported favorably without amendment.

The editor of a Florida paper, commenting on the Tidwell measure, called it a "freak." The author of the bill has written the editor in part as follows:

"You have published repeatedly that a bill introduced by me, and known as the harem skirt bill, was a 'freak.' This is no freak. The harem skirt is a garment worn by a class of ladies in the state are opposed to the harem skirt, who reside in Jacksonville, I introduced this bill."

Following Governor's Refusal to Pardon, He Must Go to Convict Camp.

Nothing remains to bring an end to the famous Stripling case save the action of the prison commission in assigning him to some prison camp where the former Virginia police chief must spend the balance of his natural life for the murder of W. J. Cornett, his neighbor, in Harris county fourteen years ago.

Governor Brown issued his formal statement declining clemency in any form. His decision in the matter was no surprise to the friends of the former police chief who heard the governor's remarks during the hearing before him one week ago, but to Stripling himself, who is confined in his cell in the Montgomery county jail, and to his wife in Danville, the news brought a shock.

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

Dispatches from Columbus say Stripling collapsed when the news was brought to him, a telegram just having been received from his wife telling of the illness of one of the children, who was taken ill with pneumonia shortly after returning from Atlanta to hear the last appeal for clemency. The news of the governor's action was a surprise in Danville. Mrs. Stripling, who was grief-stricken over the news, remarked: "We fully expected the recommendation of the prison commission to be carried out."

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Dr. J. C. Ayer

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

ALCOHOL 3 PER CENT.
A Vegetable Preparation for Assuaging the Stomach and Bowels.
NOT NARCOTIC.

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral.

Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

Fac-Simile Signature of
Dr. J. C. Ayer
NEW YORK.

40¢ BOTTLES
35¢ BOTTLES
35¢ BOTTLES

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

Here's to Your Good Health and Pleasure

Come—follow the arrow 'til you join the merry throng of palate pleased men and women who have quit seeking for the one best beverage because they've found it.

Coca-Cola

Real satisfaction in every glass—snap and sparkle—vim and go. Quenches the thirst—cools like a breeze.

Delicious—Refreshing—Wholesome

5¢ Everywhere

THE COCA-COLA CO.
Atlanta, Ga.

Whenever you see an arrow think of Coca-Cola

$7.00

ELBA TO TAMPA

AND RETURN.

MAY 16, 1911

Train will leave ELBA 12:20 p. m.

Returning on any regular train within 7 days.

Take advantage of low rate and visit

Tampa, Florida

Low rates for Boat Excursions have been arranged on Historic Tampa Bay, St. Petersburg and many points on the famous Manatee River.

See ticket agents for Pullman services and other information desired.

E. M. North, AGPA. Savannah, Ga.
G. A. Cardwell, C. A. Montgomery Ala.
L. P. GREEN, T. P. A. Thomasville, Ga.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

Nothing disturbs the human system more than pain whether it be in the form of headache, backache, neuralgia, stomachache, the pains peculiar to women.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a standard remedy for pain, and are praised by a great army of men and women who have used them for years.

A friend was down with LaGrippe and nearly crazed with aching backache. I gave her one Anti-Pain Pill and left her to her bed. She awoke the next morning feeling better, and she says she will never be without them again.

Mrs. G. H. Wynn, Austinburg, O.

At all drug stores—25¢ 25¢ 25¢.

MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Do You Have the Right Kind of Help?

Foley Kidney Pills furnish you the right kind of help to neutralize and remove the poisons that cause backache, headache, nervousness and other kidney and bladder ailments.

What's The Use

To suffer with sore eyes when one 25¢ tube of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve will cure you. We guarantee it. You risk nothing. It's a creamy, snow white ointment.

25¢ Is a Small Amount

You would not suffer one day for five times that amount. Then try Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. We guarantee it to cure. It's painless and harmless.

THE ELBA CLIPPER.

TWICE-A-WEEK.

ELBA, ALABAMA FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1911.

VOL. XIV.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

93

SHERIFF JINWRIGHT IN SUPREME COURT.

Bullock's Sheriff Arraigned on Impeachment Charges About Lynching Thursday.

Montgomery Journal.

Formal denial to the impeachment charges lodged against him by the governor of Alabama was made before the Alabama supreme court at 10 o'clock Thursday morning by Sheriff P. W. Jinwright, of Bullock county. The supreme court thereupon fixed a hearing of the impeachment proceedings for Monday, May 22, at which time evidence will be adduced.

The preliminary bout in the sensational proceedings was without a remarkable feature. The first round was over in ten minutes. Sheriff Jinwright was present in person and his answer was formally submitted to the court by his attorneys. The answer is brief and only denies, in few words, each and everyone of the given charges contained in the articles of impeachment.

The proceedings were brought against the sheriff because of the lynching of Abner Johnson, a negro, near Union Springs, several weeks ago. The negro was taken from the jail by a mob and put to death. After an investigation Governor O'Neal directed the attorney general to file articles of impeachment which were entered in the supreme court April 13.

The negro lynched was charged with a terrible crime near Goshen, and it was at the time that Pike county citizens did the lynching.

Graves Made Colonel of Fourth Regiment.

Montgomery, Ala., May 11.—E. H. Graves, of Euless, has been appointed Colonel, and Leon McLeod, of Boaz, Lieutenant Colonel of the Fourth Regiment, Alabama National Guard, which is now being formed. The appointments of majors have not been made, but they will be chosen next week, when it is expected that the regiment will be completely organized.

Not Our Commissioners.

In Montgomery, Covington and other counties they have found a little section in the Code that requires a long time. It requires the printing of the reports of the County Treasurer, and fixes a fine punishment for the members of the commissions courts that fail to have the reports published. In Montgomery County members of the court have been indicted by the grand jury for failing to do so, and it is said that some will be impeached.

GERMANY WARNS FRANCE.

No Truth in Rumor That Emperor Has Sent Ships to Morocco.

Germany has warned France of the dangerous consequences likely to follow the occupation of Fez by French troops.

Further than this the government has taken no steps, though watching developments in Morocco very closely. There is no truth in the rumor published that Germany had decided to send three cruisers to Moroccan waters in order to display the flag at Casa Blanca, Rabat, Mogador and El Arach.

In view of the hint from Berlin, it is believed here that the French flying column from the southwest, which has been hurrying to the relief of Fez, will be halted outside the capital.

AVENGED HIS DAUGHTER.

McMahon Fatally Shot Leary When Latter Laughed at Repatriation.

Avenge the honor of his 18-year-old daughter, Frank McMahon, aged 48 years, shot and fatally wounded George Leary, aged 53 years, at Philadelphia, when the latter laughed at his demands for repatriation. Leary died shortly after.

The shooting occurred in the presence of a large crowd that had gathered at Fifty-fifth and Spruce streets by the loud wailing of the two men.

Leaving his victim lying in the street, McMahon sought a policeman to give himself up.

McMahon is a saloonkeeper at Second and Spruce streets. Leary was a real estate operator.

Shoots Negro Burglar.

Union Springs, Ala., May 10.—Mr. Jamie T. Norman was awakened in the dead hours of midnight by noises about his premises, and hearing some one upon his porch he came down stairs to make an investigation. Noticing the forms of two persons, he called to them to halt. They were negroes. One of the negroes, Frank Hawthorne, quailed at his pace. Mr. Norman demanded the second time to stop. The negro continued his efforts to escape, whereupon Mr. Norman fired, the ball taking effect through his right shoulder then passing into his chest.

HIGHWAY INDORSED.

Florida Cities Interested in Road Improvements.

A meeting was called at the Elba hotel, Lake City, when a number of representative citizens congregated for the purpose of discussing matters vital to the best interests of the community.

Among the matters discussed and commented upon was the desirability of an improved highway from Tampa to connect with the New York-Atlanta-Lake City-Jacksonville highway, now marked out and under construction. All agreed that the proposed new highway should be built, and the advisability of discussing the matter with representative citizens of Tampa and intervening points of the major and minor localities interested was considered and agreed upon.

Looking Round.

Interesting Visitors From Crenshaw.

Wednesday afternoon two big automobile loads of young men from Crenshaw county came in to Elba and stayed a couple of hours and returned to Crenshaw. They said they had no business at Elba, but that some of them had never seen the town, and automobile riding was pleasant these pretty May days, and so they decided to come.

Acquaintances of some of the young men were approached by them as to the whereabouts of Waverly Dawson, one of the negroes who killed Mr. Walter Merrill, of Leon, Crenshaw county, last Saturday. They were told that the negro had been sent to Montgomery. It will be remembered that in Tuesday's Clipper there was an account of how the negro surrendered and was brought to Elba and from Elba carried to Montgomery.

It is said that several of the young men were relatives of the dead man, and others were close friends. Not a few people think that if the negro had not been carried from Elba, that an attempt would have been made to lynch him, though of course this is mere supposition, for the young men from Crenshaw never said anything like that. They merely inquired about the negro, and some of those who heard them do so say that they looked like they had more interest than passing curiosity about it.

Miss Rainer Entertains.

Tuesday afternoon at her home was the scene of a lovely party when Miss Sue Rainer entertained the L. L. L. Club and a number of other friends.

The guests were received with great cordiality and invited into the dining room where punch was served from a beautifully appointed table, presided over by Miss Virginia Paul.

Afterward the girls enjoyed music and chatting until all had assembled, then little booklets containing an "L. L. L. contest" were passed among them and lively guessing begun. A short time was granted for this and delicious tea was served.

The judges retired and passed upon the contents of the "L. L. L. Contest." Misses Emma Farris, Ella Law and Gus Hendrick tied for the prize, a pair of silk gloves.

Miss Law being successful in cutting. The hostess then presented to Miss Hendrick, one of the honor guests of the afternoon.

Those who enjoyed the pleasures of the party were Misses Hal Hendrick, Nettie Flournoy, Eudora Farris, Zula Rose, Lucy Boyd, Alice Boyd, Emma Kate Andrews, of Plains, Ga., Ella and Ada Law, Virginia Paul, Claudine Rushing, Maud Hickman, Gus Hendrick, of Geneva, Mrs. Barkley, of Plains, Ga., Mrs. Rainer and Miss Rainer.

Went to the Capital.

Rebel Chiefs of Morocco Have a Growing Moral Advantage.

A Fez, Morocco, dispatch says: The arrival of Captain Fremont's French column has not changed the situation, and the investment of the capital continues. The rebel horsemen who are beyond reach of artillery have cut off the food supplies. The sultan's troops are worn out with the constant skirmishing and watchfulness.

The rebel chiefs have a growing moral advantage since now all Morocco knows that the sultan is penned up in the capital and that his loyal troops are unable to move outside the range of their artillery. The rebels are now obtaining the upper hand throughout the country.

Tribes heretofore loyal are joining the rebellion through fear that the villages of those refusing will be razed. The arrival of the French relief expedition will secure the entry of provisions and the safety of the capital, but the political outlook is confused and uncertain.

HOTEL GUESTS LOSE LIVES.

Two Others Are Seriously Injured in Fire That Swept Building.

Two

SAM RUBENSTEIN, Proprietor

BLEED THROUGH

